

SOCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY DECLARATION3rd July 2018

Euroquartz Ltd is committed to compliance and in accordance with Social Accountability legislation.

Euroquartz Ltd are committed to abide by the standards set out in the Social Accountability 8000 and related laws and regulations.

We are prepared to take corrective action proactively upon detection of non-conformances that violate the standard

The Euroquartz suppliers terms and conditions require all suppliers to sign off their compliance to the behaviour expected by the company.

The company also conducts audits on suppliers to ensure that all human rights legislation is understood and respected.

Company Statement:

- 1) It is forbidden to hire any child labour or forced labour, and Euroquartz reserve the right reject any supplier or sub- contractor which hire child or forced labour.
- 2) Euroquartz Ltd respect worker's freedoms, and any form of forced labour is unacceptable.
- 3) Euroquartz Ltd and all approved suppliers are expected, to provide safe & healthy working & living environment whilst ensuring the safety & health of all workers.
- 4) Euroquartz Ltd expect worker-management cooperation and respect the freedom of association and the right of collective bargaining of the workers.
- 5) Euroquartz Ltd provide and expect all suppliers to offer equal & a fair working environment free from any form of discriminating behaviour.
- 6) Euroquartz Ltd respect to the basic human rights of employees and any form of behaviour intended for personal abuse is prohibited.
- 7) Euroquartz Ltd provide, and all approved suppliers are expected to, provide production schedules that allow for time & rest time for all employees.
- 8) Euroquartz Ltd offer, and all approved suppliers are expected to offer reasonable salary & welfare to at least fulfil the basic essentials of the worker.

Signed
Name	Andy Treble
Position	Director
Date	3rd July 2016